Remembering...

ROBERT MATTHEW LEE was born in Tyler, Texas on May 21, 1919, the son of Robert E. Lee and Surina Wildman united in marriage in Tyler, Texas.

Matthew attended Emmit Scott High School in Tyler, Texas and later joined the United States Army and served for three and a half years.

He moved to San Francisco, California in 1944, gave his heart to the Lord and became a preacher for many years until his death. Matthew got weary and the Lord whispered to him, "come and Rest." He bid no one good bye. He was just gone before we knew it - only God knows why he was picked from the garden of roses.

Matthew Lee departed this life on December 9, 1998 and was preceded in death by his mother, Surina and his father, Robert.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: one sister, Ethel L. Hooper, of Los Angeles, California; one God daughter, Deborah Flower, of San Francisco, California; nieces, Linda N'Jaka, of Moreno, California, Barbara Lee, of Los Angeles, California, Malinda Jackson, Carolyn Ann Hooper, Marilyn Jones, and Joyce Wise, of Los Angeles, California; nephews, Noel Keith Gregsby, Robert Catchings Jr. and Robert Brown of Los Angeles, California; a host of other nephews and nieces; cousins Avander Lee, Ester Lee, Arva Campbell and Gwendolyn Mitchell, of Oakland, California and John Lee, of Los Angeles, California; many grandchildren of Los Angeles, California, other relatives and many friends

Matthew Lee will be dearly missed by those he loved and those who loved him.

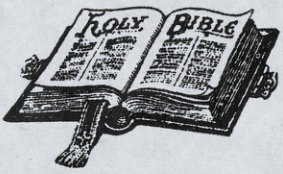
God Saw You..

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you, and He whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away,
And though we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.



23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
